Presentation from Fred Bray: Retired teacher, explained how he is working with the City of Redmond to improve biking accessibility within the community. Fred is willing to start a Bike Train, will lead the first day and parents will drop off at Quince Park and will ride through the neighborhood to school. 1-1.25 mile bike ride one way. Could possibly happen more than once or twice per year. 10 year olds & up? 3rd, 4th and 5th? Start with a smaller group, older kids. Flyers from Commute Options? Meet at 8:20? 8:30? Fred will talk to Drew to coordinate.

National Bike to School Day: October 5th

Cyd Wheeler--5th grade teacher. Excited for a new year with 5th graders and a new math curriculum. Drew explained that the new math program is called iReady, and using the iReady program, taking an assessment to target interventions as needed.

Drew Frank: Blazer night is coming again! November 11th is Veterans Day and will be the game that is available.

$13 per ticket if driving yourself and your kids

$23 per ticket if riding the bus (60 seats)

If not enough seats are filled, there will be a gap between what will cover the bus fee ($100-400) if not enough students ride the bus.

4th & 5th grade students can go with a chaperone on the bus
